"If Music Be the Food of Love ... Then Strings and Swings is Set to Play On!"

For some people, when making a career decision it pays to be persistent. No one knows how much truth there is in this kernel of wisdom than musician/voice instructor Donna Prypin. After trying her hand at "eleven different occupations" which she openly admits she "didn't like," she finally settled on the one thing she most enjoys: music.

"Music has always been the single constant in my life," she said during a recent interview. "I was one of seven kids and six of us were involved in music in one way or another. We were always singing around the house."

Citing the influences of her talented siblings — her sister, Bonnie Galloway, who now works as an actress in New York, and brother, Kevin Truland, who still finds time to play his guitar between his busy law career — Ms. Prypin decided to follow her heart and take up music professionally.

At the age of 25, she took a sharp detour off her track of successive jobs and enrolled at the renowned Berklee College of Music in Boston, beginning her focus first on composition and then later switching to performance.

"I decided that I wanted to do something I love," she said. "So many people take jobs that they don't like ... most of your life is spent at work, so why not work at something you love?"

Ms. Prypin's love affair with music has only grown since earning a degree from Berklee. For the last 19 years the vocalist/guitarist has been performing a catalog of styles in a variety of venues ... and this weekend she'll return with her group, Strings and Swings, for an encore performance of the successful Valentine's Day concert at the Marion Art Center.

Teaming up with her husband, violinist Boh Prypin, and guitarist Joe Scott, the trio will present a program of "love songs" in a unique setting on Sunday, February 13 beginning at 4:00 pm.

Having three varied talents and musical backgrounds, the ensemble will provide a unique program for sweethearts on this annual romantic holiday. Styles will range from jazz and ballads to country and pop ... and the group will lend their trademark vocal harmonies to each selection.

Ms. Prypin admits that her own preferences and tastes are quite varied, and this allows both the group's and her own performances to remain versatile and unique. Among her early influences she cited such diverse talents as Linda Ronstadt, Bonnie Raitt, Emmylou Harris, and Billie Holliday, and noted that she and her husband have also performed as a folk duo which included the music of the Grateful Dead, Neil Young, and Crosby, Stills and Nash in their repertoire.

"I don't really stick to one style," she said. "I've sung with country bands, I've sung with jazz bands, I've sung with rock bands ... I go from one to the other. People keep telling us we're eclectic. I guess that means we don't have an easily-definable style."

Not only does Ms. Prypin enjoy performing her music, she also enjoys passing her talents on to students. For the last 15 years, she has been giving private voice lessons and teaching music theory to students and area musicians. She currently has about 40 students under her wing and teaches every Monday at the Marion Art Center and spends the rest of the week conducting private lessons at her home in Marstons Mills on the Cape.

"A lot of students only see the glamorous side to performing," she said. "They don't realize it requires a lot of practice and work. It's not just a matter of getting up on stage and singing. You have to set up the equipment and rehearse the music ... there's a lot more that goes into it."

Despite some of these minor drawbacks, however, Ms. Prypin readily admits that it's all worth it in the end. The opportunity to do something you really enjoy as a career greatly outweighs the negative aspects.

And she gains a great deal of personal satisfaction in seeing her students' progress.

"I love teaching because I like watching the kids blossom," she said. "You watch them when they first come in and they're green ... they just don't get it. A year later, you see them up on stage and you realize you've created a monster! You have to get a hook to get them off the stage."

She also emphasizes the importance of learning to read music, as she took 17 years of voice lessons herself and didn't know how to read music until she went to Berklee. "I said to myself: 'Something's wrong with this picture,'" she said. "Your voice is your instrument and you've got to know what key you sing in and you've got to know the intervals (the distance between the notes)."

As Ms. Prypin prepared to conduct another lesson, Marion student Beth Grosart agreed she enjoys taking voice lessons, but finds learning intervals difficult.

Her teacher smiled.

"I always knew I wanted to do something in music, but I never thought it would be my 'career,'" she mused.

Strings and Swings — featuring Donna Prypin (guitar/vocals), Boh Prypin (violin/vocals), and Joe Scott (guitar/vocals) — will perform their

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

February 8, 1994

Despite somewhat treacherous road conditions, a meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, February 8, 1994 at 7:05 pm by Chairman John N. DeCosta. Also present were Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney, Selectman Paul E. Lambalot, and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

Herb of the Month German Chamomile

The apparent endless list of conditions it can help all fall into areas that the relaxing, carminative and anti-inflammatory actions can aid. Indigestion and inflammations such as gastritis are often eased with chamomile. Similarly, it can be used as a mouth wash for inflammations of the mouth. As a gargle it will help soothe a sore throat. Externally it may speed wound healing and reduce the swelling due to inflammation.

After approving the minutes of the February 1 meeting and the Executive Session minutes for February 1, February 3, and February 7, the board signed all licenses, permits and outgoing correspondence for the week. Under meetings scheduled through the week, Chairman DeCosta noted on Thursday, February 10 from 4:00 to 6:00 pm, Sen. Marc Pacheco will hold a constituency meeting in the Selectmen's Office. On Friday, February 11 at 1:00 pm, the town will close on the bond taken out with the Farmer's Home Administration to pay their debt to the Town of Fairhaven for their portion of the sewer treatment plant.

At 7:15 pm, the board met with Marlene O'Neill and Patricia Bernard of the Housing Authority to appoint someone to fill a vacancy left with the resignation of Vivianne Surprenant. One resident, Margaret DeMello of 64 Acushnet Road, had written to the board to express her interest in the position. Selectman Lambalot, speaking favorably on Ms. DeMello's behalf, moved to appoint her which was passed with a unanimous vote of the board. It was noted that Ms. DeMello must take out and return her papers to run for re-election by next Tuesday, February 15, as Ms. Surprenant's term was set to expire this year.

At 7:30 pm, the board voted to go into Executive Session to caucus and discuss collective bargaining strategy with the Clerical Union which could have a detrimental effect on the town. The board would reconvene in regular session to discuss further business.

At 8:10 pm, the board reconvened and met with Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson to sign and approve the bond note in order to pay the town's outstanding debt to Fairhaven. Mr. Nicholson noted that the bond had been taken out with Farmer's Home Administration in the amount of $94,000 with an interest rate of 5.25 percent for a term of 20 years. Mr. Nicholson said the town has the option to repay the bond earlier than 20 years, if it so desires.

The Board of Selectmen unanimously voted to accept and approve said loan and signed copies of the $94,000 bond; excerpts from the minutes of the board's December 21 meeting

Local Legislators to Visit Area Elderly

Members of the General Court have been invited to make "home visits" to local senior citizens who are living independent lives thanks to the home care program. These "home visits" are part of a statewide "Home Care Family Album Week," now in progress through February 14. "Home is where the heart is," said Charles Sisson, Executive Director of Coastline Elderly Services, Inc. "We thought Valentine's week was a good time to focus our attention on older relatives. 'Family Album Week' is designed to explain in pictures one of the Commonwealth's most successful human services."

The "home visits" with legislators coincide with the release of the "Home Family Album," a

On Friday, February 11 at 10:30 am, Sen. Mark Montigny will visit Olympia Towers and on Friday, February 18 at 10:30 am, Rep. William Straus will visit the Mattapoisett Housing Authority Lunch Site.

Mr. Sisson noted that despite the skyrocketing growth in elderly population in Massachusetts, the funding for home care has been frozen for the past three years at $103 million ... more than $25 million below the funding level in the late 1980's. Coastline Elderly today is serving 850 elders, compared to 1,500 in 1986. Statewide, roughly 12,000 fewer elders get home care today compared with seven years ago.

"Our message this Valentine's Day is quite simple," Mr. Sisson said. "Behind each number is a

Mattapoisett Recycling Program

The Mattapoisett Recycling Committee is alive and well! We've been working toward our goal of curbside recycling. Right now, along with the Board of Health, we're accepting proposals from many haulers to do our curbside recycling. Our aim is to provide "the best service for the least money."

We are the only area town not involved in curbside recycling. At the Special Town Meeting in November, voters gave overwhelming support to a curbside recycling program.

At the Annual Town Meeting in May, the article for curbside will appear on the warrant for your consideration. We ask your support for the good of our town and our Earth. The Mattapoisett Recycling Committee meets on the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 pm in the Town Hall. Please join us.

administered by the Mattapoisett Cultural Council.

Visiting artists in the past have included those specializing in face painting, watercolor, silk screening, stained glass, furniture making, wood burning, and several others. Repeat visiting artists are certainly welcome, as are parents and newcomers. We know there is a lot of talent out there, and we know also that the rewards of sharing that talent with young artists are immense. Just ask the students!

If you are an area artist and are interested in enriching the creative development of our young "Van Gogh's," then please contact Diane Perry, Center School Art Teacher, at 758-2521 by February 21. Or you can send her a note c/o Center School, 17 Barstow Street, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. This year, the program will run during March and will coincide with Center School's Music/Art Night on March 30.

Plumb Memorial Library in Rochester

School Vacation Week

There's something for all ages at the Plumb Memorial Library in Rochester during the winter school vacation week.

On Wednesday, February 23 at 10:30 am, there will be a story/craft hour for children ages 3 to 6. Children and their parents will share stories, songs, and a craft or two. Kids will receive stickers, bookmarks, and reading logs to record their spring reading.

On Saturday, February 26 at 10:30 am, there will be a craft hour for kids and young adults, ages 7 through 12. Those who attend will make a useful bird feeder in addition to other activities. There will be bookmarks and reading logs for this age group, too.

Pre-registration for each of these programs is required. Call the library at 763-8600 or stop by the library and sign up at the desk.

Library Family Day at Fenway Park

Enjoy a day at the baseball game and help support area libraries! Library Family Day is Saturday, April 23, 1994. Get your discounted tickets to see the Red Sox play the California Angels and $1 from each ticket reserved will go to the Massachusetts Library Association.

Tickets are available until February 22 only, so stop by the Plumb Memorial Library in Rochester today to reserve yours. Reserved Grandstand tickets are $10 each (regularly $12) and bleacher seats are $6 each (regularly $8). Please come prepared to write a check payable to the Friends of the Plumb Memorial Library for the cost of the tickets.

For more information, call the library at 763-8600 or stop by during library hours.

Children's Literature

"Once upon a time." This magical phrase conjures up the image of a wide-eyed child waiting for the next sentence. Will he travel back in time, slay a dragon, or make a new imaginary friend?

Sharing a book with a child is a special way of touching his/her life. The Children's Depot is currently involved in a campaign aimed at bringing children's literature to life through a variety of planned activities and presentations.

As part of this campaign, the staff will sponsor a story hour at the Joseph H. Plumb Memorial Library in Rochester on Saturday, February 12 at 10:30 am. The theme of the storyhour will be based on the writing and artwork of Eric Carle. The children will be encouraged to create their own "Mixed Up Chameleons," "Very Hungry Caterpillars" and "Grouchy Ladybugs" as part of the presentation.

The program is open to children ages 3 through 6, and advance registration is required. Call the library at 763-8600, or stop by during library

School Cancellation Announcements

In case of severe weather warranting the discontinuance of school, the following radio stations will broadcast the "no school" notice: WBSM (1420 AM), WNBH/WCTK (1340 AM/98.1 FM), WPLM (1390 AM), and WRKO/WBMX (98.5 FM). Do not call the Old Colony office, your local police or radio stations.

Open House

Parents and community residents will have an opportunity to visit Old Colony at the Annual Sunday Open House scheduled for March 6 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. A "Shadow Program" is also available to eighth graders who would like to experience an entire school day in a particular Old Colony shop. ## 1994 LWV Phone Book

All current advertisers in the Marion-Mattapoisett-Rochester Telephone Directory — the "blue book" — are urged to send their renewal forms for the 1994 edition. The deadline is fast approaching. Renewal forms have been sent out, but in case the notification sank in a sea of January paperwork, call the League of Women Voters' (LWV) Phone Book Editor, Claire Russell, for a new form at 748-2542, or write 42 Stoney Run Lane, Marion, MA 02738.

New advertisers are very welcome. One of the main attractions of the LWV phone book is that it divides its listings according to the individual towns. Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester are each separate and a FREE book goes to every postal address in the three towns. It is a particularly good venue for home occupations.

Rates are reasonable and the directory provides constant local exposure in the tri-town area. Current ad cuts or a business card design can be used or a new ad devised at a minimum extra charge. Any one interested should contact the editor.

Directory advertisers are also included FREE in a classified section. Small businesses and services may also buy individual classified listings independent of an advertisement.

Income from this phone book helps finance the league's local programs, particularly its Voter Service activities.

Marion Babe Ruth Registration

In response to a growing population and many requests, the Town of Marion sponsored two Babe Ruth teams in 1993. The Town is willing to support this again if there is sufficient interest to warrant having two teams. In order to field competitive teams and to provide the opportunity for as many qualified players to participate as possible, the Marion Recreation Committee needs to ascertain how many players are planning to try out for Babe Ruth. Those interested are asked to return a form now available inside at the Elizabeth Taber Library as soon as possible.

Each team is permitted 15 players, ages 13, 14 and 15. Please remember this is for experienced players who want to make a commitment to play competitive ball at the Babe Ruth level on the larger Babe Ruth field for two practices and/or one or two games a week throughout the spring and summer. Naturally, the play gets more competitive at this age level and it is possible that not all registrants will make a team.

Mattapoisett PTA Meeting

February 1, 1994

President Debbie DeWalt welcomed all present and circulated the current information forwarded from the National PTA. Debbie informed the members that the National PTA has appointed television personality Fred Rogers as their honorary chairperson. The National PTA is also lobbying for decreasing violence on television.

Secretary Patti Apperson read her report, which was accepted as read.

Debbie Jones read her Corresponding Secretary's report and noted that she sent out four cards last month. She received a note from a fifth grader thanking the PTA for the "Journey into Jazz" program held at Old Hammondtown School in December. Debbie also received two thank you notes from teachers Judy Proctor and Ellen Driscoll for their SOS expenditures.

Jan Kortright read the Treasurer's Report, which was also accepted as read. The Treasurer's Report will appear in all future PTA newsletters.

Jack Murphy and Principal Bill Reed requested that they be allowed to use a portion of their request allocations to purchase heavy duty First Aid kits for Field Trips. The motion was approved by all present. Mr. Murphy also informed the members that he has requested the Center School library to be renamed in memory of Drusilla Darrah.

Under the School Committee report, Donna Bernier reported that the in-service day meeting held on January 18 was very informative and enjoyed by all present. ORR High School will also become handicapped accessible (when renovations are made later this year). No action has been taken on the building or planning of a new school.

Donna Bernier also reported that the School Council is still working on a "Mission Statement" which consists not so much of goals for Center School but what Center School stands for. Donna also discussed the "Common Core of Learning." The state will be responsible for setting a standard on what is required when a student graduates from high school. Principal Reed reported that the film on the "Common Core of Learning" viewed by the Old Hammondtown School Council was well done and enjoyed by all.

President DeWalt reported that she met with School Superintendent Joan Walsh, Assistant Superintendent Thomas Forcella, and Andy Lynch, Head of the School Committee, regarding the organization of a Public Forum for the Building Needs of the Elementary Schools. At the present time, Debbie does not have a definite date for the forum, but will notify members of any further developments.

Lois Sager of the Ways and Means Committee reported that the Women's Club decided not to pass on the calendar fundraiser to the PTA this year. Lois brought forward a few ideas on other fundraisers. A "Family Night" fundraiser will be held in March at Papa Gino's. The PTA will earn 15 percent of all sales that Papa Gino's earns that night. Further details will follow on the date of the fundraiser.

Pat Stinson requested the sum of $55 be appropriated to file an application to sell sweatshirts at Harbor Days on July 16 and 17. The motion was approved by all members present.

The next meeting for the Mattapoisett PTA will be held on Tuesday, March 1 at 7:00 pm in the Center School cafeteria.

MBA to Sponsor Slide Show and Lecture

The Massachusetts Boating Association (MBA), Inc. a non-profit statewide boating organization, will present a slide and lecture show by Larry Mahan of Marston's Mills, titled "One Boy's Dream — Building the Schooner Larinda" on Saturday, February 12 at 1:30 pm. The program will be presented in the Music Hall Auditorium at the corner of Front and Cottage Streets in Marion.

The show will trace this immense project from Larry's boyhood dreams of "a boat able to take him anywhere in the world" and documents the 20-year project of Schooner Larinda that will see her launched later this year on Cape Cod.

Schooner Larinda is a replica of an 18th-century schooner built in Boston and featured in Howard Chappelle's books History of Small American Sailing Ships, and The Search for Speed Under Sail. The Schooner Larinda has been hailed as "an immense project that is really fascinating" by Dana Hewson, director of shipbuilding at Mystic Seaport Museum, and has been featured in articles in The National Fisherman and Soundings.

The construction techniques, joining tradition with innovation, have brought world-renown to Larry and his wife, Marlene, as Larry's innovations have prompted the experts to revise some of their assumptions about the economics and methods of recreation and restoration of historically-significant sailing ships. The launching of Larinda will be the subject of a documentary film, but the February 12 MBA-sponsored show will tell the whole story, from discovery of the plans, the innovative construction, to the world-wide search for a true ship's Diesel of historic significance for Schooner Larinda's auxiliary power.

Sailors and powerboaters, children, students, and adults — whether boaters, builders or history buffs, will marvel at the scale and the challenge (the engine alone weighs 14,000 pounds) of this boatbuilding, ship-powering project. The story of the Schooner Larinda is truly inspirational, and the MBA urges parents and teachers to bring their children and students.

Admission for the event is $5 for adults, $2.50 for students, and $1 for children under 16. All proceeds will be used to help continue the educational work of the Massachusetts Boating Association.

Professor Rockefeller to Speak at Tabor

Professor Steven C. Rockefeller of Middlebury College, a noted scholar who has written on the links between ecology, religious faith, and democratic social values, will speak at Tabor Academy in Marion on Thursday, February 24. The public is invited and admission is FREE.

Dr. Rockefeller will reflect on issues of "Spirit and Nature." His talk will begin at 7:15 pm in the Lyndon South Auditorium (located in Tabor's Academic Center). The presentation is jointly sponsored by the Sippican Lands Trust, the Marion Foundation, and Tabor Academy.

As Professor of Religion and former Dean of Middlebury College in Vermont, Dr. Rockefeller organized the 1990 symposium "Spirit and Nature: Religion, Ethics, and the Environmental Crisis" at Middlebury. The symposium featured Tenzin Gyatso, His Holiness, the 14th Dalai Lama of Tibet, as well as several other leading theological and ecological thinkers. Bill Moyers and Public Affairs Television produced an outstanding documentary film on the symposium. The event spawned the acclaimed book, Spirit and Nature: Why the Environment is a Religious Issue, which includes a stirring essay, "Faith and Community in an Ecological Age" by Professor Rockefeller.

In this piece, Rockefeller observes that "a

The essay goes on to conclude: "the roots of such (an ecological) faith lie deep in ancient traditions, but it is the destiny of this and future generations to bring this faith into full flower in the light of the new knowledge of interdependence of the whole earth community."

Dr. Rockefeller is also author of John Dewey: Religious Faith and Democratic Humanism (1991) and co-author of The Christ and the Bodhisattva (1987). Rockefeller is on sabbatical leave from Middlebury during the current academic year and is residing on the Maine coast.

To be eligible for care through Vision USA, one member of the family must be employed, the family must not be covered by government or private health insurance, eye exams must not have been received in the past year, and household income cannot exceed an established level based on household size.

Workers who believe they may be eligible for benefits are encouraged to call 1-800-766-4466 toll free during the month of January only. Those who qualify for care will be notified by mail if a volunteer optometrist is available in their area; they will also receive instructions on how to schedule an appointment for an examination in March.
